Shopping around Siam Square

This part of Bangkok is one of the most intense and best shopping areas in Thailand and South-East Asia. You will probably find what you are looking for to a price, often far less expensive than in Europe, Japan or USA. Prepare yourself with a good sleep and a decent breakfast, and then you'll be able to 'shop till you drop'. Afterwards, a movie in a refreshing, air conditioned theater or a cold Thai beer (Singha, Chang, Leo etc.) can be a relaxing alternative. <http://www.siam-square.com/>

Siam Discovery Center and Siam Center These were the first large shopping centers that were built in Bangkok. Here you will also find restaurants and movie theaters at the top floor. The two shopping malls are connected with a bridge on the 4th floor. <http://www.siamdiscovery.co.th/main.php>

MBK Center - Mah Boon Krong Found close to Siam Square almost where Sukhumvit Road starts. This is the low price giant of the capital city. Here you will find both copies and original clothing brands together with mobile (cellular) phones and all kind of electronics. There are also some jewelry and gold shops here as well as a movie theater, bowling alley, karaoke rooms and restaurants. <http://www.mbk-center.co.th/th/home/>

Siam Paragon Located on Rama I Road and next to Siam Discovery Center and Siam Center. This shopping mall was finally opened in late 2005. It is a very large mall with an impressive number of shops (selling; electronics, sports equipment, clothes, household equipment, books, toys etc.) and a huge supermarket, called Gourmet Market, at the ground level. You will also find a bowling alley, karaoke rooms, a concert hall and Siam Ocean World, one of the largest aquariums in Asia. <http://www.siamparagon.co.th/v9/>
